NATION WIDE OBSERVANCE

Of Woman Suffrage Day May 2nd.—
The Mason County Meeting Will Be Held at the Court House
at 2 P. M.

May 2nd will be observed throughout the United States as Woman Suffrage Day. In many places the demonstrations will be imposing with parades, marches, may pole dances, and other
out-door features; stores will be closed,
houses decorated with suffrage colors,
bells rung, whistles blown and meetings called to order with a bugle blast.

In Kentucky about twenty-five towns and cities will hold suffrage meetings and in the larger cities the programs for the day are elaborate.

In Maysville a meeting will be held at the court house at 2 o'clock p. m.

The program will consist of patriotic songs led by the High School Quartette and speeches by Dr. John Barbour and Hon. A. D. Cole. The music will be in charge of Miss Hanselmann, Director of Music in the Public Schools. Miss Lloyd, President of the Mason County
Woman Suffrage League, will briefly present the possibilities of Federal suffrage.

A large attendance is desired both of the converted and the unconverted. It is hoped that the country people will arrange their shopping and business programs so that they may be able to attend this meeting and hear a live question discussed by these able representatives of the legal profession and the Christian ministry. Do not forget the day and hour, May 2nd, 2 p. m.

A statue of William Pitt, first Earl of Chatham, which is to be presented to the City of Washington by American women living in England. The idea originated with Lady Arthur Paget, who interested other American women in the plan.

The war spirit usually runs high for a week or two. Army and navy lithographs impart an appealing glamour. But when time is had for thinking it all over most of us will be willing to let the other fellows go.

A draft for the call of 250,000 volunteers having been completed and will be formally issued probably in a few days will leave no room for excuse on the part of the fellows who have been following fight for the past year. It may be necessary to establish a draft in order to get them to the front.

COX IS GOING TO GET A FALL.

One of the brightest observers of politics in this State recently remarked that "the voters of Ohio no longer go to the polls to elect candidates whom they like, but to defeat those whom they dislike." He cited the case of Taft in 1912, and pointed out what is sure to happen to Gov. Cox this fall. According to all accounts the voters of Ohio are busy preparing an awful dose of knock-out drops for their Governor. They are tired of him. He must go.—Chillicothe Gazette.

TOLU AND MISSIONS.

In digesting the statement made by an eastern paper that the gum-chewers spent $9,000,000 more for tolu last year than was spent for foreign missions, a worldly paragrapher draws the solemn lesson "that the gum chewers spent their own money, while the other fellows held up somebody else for what they squandered to make the heathens behave but wouldn't. Strange is the direction the evil thoughts of the average paragrapher sometimes wander. Had he suggested that the mission funds be expended for the taking of photographs of the gum fiends when they are in active mastication they would never be guilty of such hideous public exposure again, and besides having his name revered for all time, some good would have evolved from the outlay.—Portsmouth Times.

Two new steamers of 16,000 tons each were ordered by the Hamburg-American line to Panama Canal service.

CHAMP CLARK'S PREDICTION.

Speaker Clark, usually strikes 12 when he says anything, and in reply to those who accused him of making his personal ambitions introduce a schism in the Democratic Party he said, unanswerably: "If President Wilson succeeds in his Administration no one can take the nomination in 1916 away from him; if he fails, the nomination will not be worth having by any one."

FOOLISH ARGUMENT.

Don't argue with a woman, don't unless you want to be declared a loser. Just the other day we listened to a friendly argument of a man and wife on the question of "the superiority of man." After he had stated his case, the wife floored him with this statement: "Abraham, as long as he acted on his own initiative, made many mistakes and twice had to be told by God to take the advice of his wife, and the greatest tragedy the world ever has witnessed would have never taken place if Pilate had listened to his wife." The husband took a hint and did not go down that night.—Portsmouth Times.

SPREADING GOSPEL OF CLEANLINESS.

The scope of clean up day in New York City is being widened. A special hygiene program for schoolboy athletes prominent in cleaning up the town has been arranged as follows:

Go to bed at 8 o'clock after a thorough wash and cold splash over the chest and trunk. Scrub teeth and gums well. Have clothes and books ready for the morning.

Get up not a minute later than 7 o'clock. Go through a two minute drill and hygiene exercises. Clean face and neck and scrub hands. Finish up with a big cold splash and hard rub all over. See that feet and legs are clean and rub them hard to get them into condition. Brush teeth and gums thoroughly.

Breakfast and all meals: No coffee, no tea. Drink milk a little at a time. Chew all food to a pulp. Ask your teacher what foods to avoid. No smoking.

Before school look yourself over.

Am I clean from head to toe?

Are all my clothes clean and in order down to the skin?

Do I stand up like an athlete?

EXPLAINED.

"Why do they call an after dinner speech a toast?" asked the Boob.

"Because it is usually so dry," replied the Grouch.

Three Million Babies Die in America Each Year, Says Nathan Straus.

Washington.—Nathan Straus, of New York, told the delegates to the third International Congress on the Welfare of the Child that three million babies die in America each year without reaching their first birthday.

He claimed that great progress had been made in reducing the death rate among infants in New York, and that while in 1891 it was 95 per cent, in a thousand, last year it was only 37.3 per thousand.

Mrs. Frederick Schoff, president of the Congress, in her annual report, said that practical measures had been begun by the congress that if carried out would save 100,000 babies a year.

BETTER BABIES.

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast, and taken firm hold of American Mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Women who suffer from mysterious pains, backache, nervousness, mental depression, headaches, etc., should rely on Lydia E. Pankham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been the standard remedy for these ailments.

"Father grows younger every day." And his new photograph hits him to a "T."

The old portrait taken twenty years ago, made him look so serious and old-fashioned—not a bit like he really is.

We wouldn't part with it of course. But isn't it splendid to have a picture of him as WE know him—just as he looks today.

And father says that he's glad he gave in and had it made—that having your picture taken is far from an unpleasant experience now-a-days.

MRS. PENNYBACKER

Noted President of National Federation of Women's Clubs Delivers Delightful Talk—Musical and Refreshments Follow

Herr Kohn, German Virtuoso, Also Charmed Audience

A large and appreciative audience gathered Saturday evening at the Public Library to hear Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker of Austin, Texas, president of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, Saturday at 8 p. m.

Her subject was "Some of the Dangers that Threaten the American Home."

Before taking up her subject she made an earnest appeal to the club women to stand together and not to allow trivialities to divide them. In union there was strength in division defeat. That a half dozen women with earnest effort and high resolve could accomplish much and if these were multiplied and re-multiplied until the aggregate of a million women was reached the colossal results would be mounting high and world-wide.

She gave an illustration of what one woman had done in Panama. President Taft sent for Miss Mabel Boardman, president of the Red Cross Association and told her he wanted her to do what no other person he knew could do—harmonize the various elements of class or social discord into one harmonious whole. The men were dissatisfied because their wives were unhappy and this state of discontent threatened to block the building of the canal. Miss Boardman went. She saw, she conquered. She organized these discontented women into clubs and in the interest of higher and ennobling duties they forgot the petty trifles that had divided them. Peace and good will was restored and the canal was built. And this was the work of a woman.

Miss Boardman accompanied the Taft party to the Philippines and was everywhere received by crowned heads and high dignitaries with the same respect that was shown the President and his wife. In speaking of the Home, she made man—the husband and father—as equally responsible with the wife and mother for the welfare of the Home. That it was not just or generous to put the work of the entire training of the child upon the too frequently all ready overburdened mother. With the compliment, "You know better than I, Mary, do just as you please." She spoke of the necessity of living in close sympathy and confidence with the child, entering into their pleasures and sharing in their griefs. She gave an illustration of the case of the man, who immersed in business and making the making of dollar-to-dollar the chief object of his life had burdened his troubles to a friend in this wise: "That degenerate boy of mine has by his shameless, disgraceful course torn me all to pieces. I have done everything for him, and this is the return he gives me. The friend asked what have you done? I have given him dogs and ponies and everything a boy wants, as he grew older I have given him means to gratify every whim and want. The friend gravely asked have you given him yourself? Extending his hand he said give me your hand on the promise that we will save the boy. And the boy was saved and happily proclaimed, "Dad and I are pals."

The speaker said one of the elements that destroy the home is worry—that we often worry about our sons-in-law when our girls are in their cradles or making mud pies in the back yard.

That an atmosphere of good cheer should irradiate from the Home—that a house might have order, system, neatness and executive ability upon the part of the mistress of the house and yet not be a Home. It might not have either of these qualities and yet be a Home. She entered a protest against launching a young girl into society at an early age. She spoke of the desirability of simplicity of dress for the young girl, that it should be modest, simple and healthful. She spoke of the necessity of training the young girl in the duties of housekeeping, wifehood and motherhood—contrasting the custom of the better class of German parents with our parents, she said, "In Germany when the girl graduates from the college she is given a course in domestic science; the boy is given a business course. In America the average girl prides herself upon her ignorance of housekeeping, cooking and sewing—that it is no more unfair."

come to the marriage altar without any definite ideas or business plans than it is for the girl to come ignorant of home duties. Mrs. Pennybacker gave some laughable illustrations of the result of sending our boys and girls abroad without proper preparation. That without this preparation they could bring no more back than they took with them. She told of being seated before a Rembrandt picture in the Louvre when a tourist party of her countrymen came in and listened to the stereotyped description of the hired guide, beginning, "Ladies and gentlemen, this is one of the greatest wonders of the world," and ending with "now move on." Two young girls who lingered behind said one to the other, "Oh Mary, I am so tired and don't know anything about it and father and mother made such sacrifices that we might have this trip." Yes, the other rejoined, "I know, but if we don't hurry on to see that other greatest wonder in the next room we will be left." Just after that they left a middle aged German, from his dress a Bavarian, entered with his daughter. In low cultured tones he taught the story of the picture and pointed out its wonderful beauties and perfections of art.

Mrs. Pennybacker was abroad when the "Mona Lisa" was stolen from the Louvre, and was startled to see one day a clipping from an American paper, with head lines, "Another Young Girl Lost—Mrs. Lisa left her young daughter, Mona, alone in an art gallery for a few moments and when she returned Mona was gone." Poor distracted, heart-broken Mrs. Lisa.

Another good story of the new rich was that of the man who discovered the importance of having some pieces of art in his home, and said to his wife, "When I order my next stock of goods I will order twelve pieces of art and when the art arrived the first box happened to contain the Venus Di Milo. When he opened it he rushed to his wife saying that abominable railroad has broken the first piece of art and they have even taken the pieces away and it has no arms. I will sue that railroad for damages and be paid and recovered damages."

Mrs. Pennybacker closed her address with a beautiful picture of a united country upon the high plane of justice and right—the evolution of the Home as a miniature republic. After the address a lovely reception was given. The dining room was very attractive with its exquisite table appointments, cut flowers, potted palms and the soft light from innumerable candles.

Mrs. Pennybacker was the guest of Mrs. Hubster and Miss Amy Hubster of West Third street, while in the city.

Miss Elizabeth Barbour and Herr Ewald Kohn and Miss Florence Rogers also gave the audience a rare musical treat. Mr. Kohn in his short stay here and his two appearances has won a warm place in the hearts of the music-loving people of Maysville. May fortune bring Mr. Kohn to our community again.

LATEST WAR BULLETINS

VERA CRUZ UNDER MARTIAL LAW
Vera Cruz, April 26.—Vera Cruz is tonight under martial law. Rear Admiral Frank F. Fletcher, commanding the American naval forces on the shore, today issued a proclamation to this effect and the last opportunity of Mexicans to handle their own affairs in Vera Cruz under their own laws disappeared.

Admiral Fletcher and his staff determined that there should be no more quibbling with the Mexican officials regarding forms of government and until further notice the residents of this port will live and be judged by military law. The word had gone forth that disorder and unruliness in any form shall receive swift and severe punishment. This proclamation makes Rear Admiral Fletcher absolute ruler ashore and it is generally agreed that he will use this power with stoical regard for all, to the end that order shall be maintained.

The Baptist revival took on large proportions yesterday. The pastor preached two powerful sermons to large audiences at both services. At the night service chairs were placed in the aisles to accommodate the crowd. The preaching was powerful and the singing was uplifting. There were two additions to the church. One by experience and one by letter. These meetings are growing in interest and power, and will continue every night this week. Services begin at 7:30.
